

C.D.M.A.

We welcome you here today
The 12 Conference of C.D.M.A
Established in July 1995
It's evident that it (has) did survived
With discussions on security issues
The C.D.M.A only got good news
That good news you all must understand
Defence matters through exchange of information

Chorus

Hip hip hip hooray
C.D.M.A is here to stay (twice)

A major role of military
Is ensuring the preservation of democracy
Proper dialogue my friend is the key
Between civilian and the military
That partnership will monitor or trace
Any kind of threat via cyber space
Security is priority – a reality today
And everybody have a part to play

The military must have systems in place
For the environment and managing toxic waste

Apart from protecting our borders the military
Is to protect our air and water quality
Providing relief to victims thereafter
In the event of a natural disaster
In that regard I am very pleased
To say that security knows no boundaries

Antigua, Argentina, & The Bahamas
Belize Brazil, Bolivia & Barbados
Dominican Republic – and Canada
Chile, Colombia & Costa Rica
Dominica – Grenada - & Ecuador
Haiti, Guatemala - & El Salvador
Guyana, Honduras & Mexico
Jamaica & Panama also

We welcome Paraguay & Peru
St Kitts & Nevis & St Lucia too
St Vincent & Grenadines I now declare
Along with Uruguay we're glad you're here
Venezuela and the U.S.A
They are all represented here today
Last but not least I'll let you know
The host country is Trinidad and Tobago